CAREER ACHIEVEMENTS

COLORADO BUFFALOES | 2022

Promoted to Assistant Head Coach
Helped Jordyn Tyson to Freshman All-American Honors

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS | 2018-2020

In three seasons coaching receivers for the Chargers, his top threat, Keenan Allen, was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and set numerous franchise records; Allen and Mike Williams both recorded 1,000-yard seasons in 2019. He was responsible for third down game planning, team presentation and in game personnel for all offensive positions. Playoff Team in 2018 (12-4)

BUFFALO BILLS | 2017

Buffalo Bills, helping the team finish 9-7 and earn their first playoff berth in 18 years (only the team's third winning season in that entire span as well).

EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY | 2016

Developed Zay Jones, who earned first-team All-America honors after leading the NCAA in receptions (158) and receiving yards (1,746), also leading in per game averages for those categories (13.2 and 145.5, respectively). It set the NCAA record for receptions and career. A finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, he was a second round pick (37th player overall) by Buffalo in the 2017 NFL Draft (and whom McGeoghan would coach as a rookie in the league). Promoted to Co-Offensive Coordinator after 2016 season.

MIAMI DOLPHINS | 2012-2015

McGeoghan's first NFL position came with the Miami Dolphins under head coach Joe Philbin for the 2012-15 seasons, finishing in the top third in the league in passing yards three of those four years. His top players were 1,000-yard receivers Jarvis Landry and Brian Hartline; Landry set the franchise record with 110 receptions in 2015 when he was selected to the Pro Bowl, a year after he set the Dolphin record for receptions by a rookie (84). Hartline had back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons in 2012 and 2013, just the second player in franchise history to accomplish the feat.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA | 2009-2011

His first collegiate job on the FBS level came at the University of South Florida, where he coached the Bulls' receivers for three seasons (2009-11) and had his first real experience in recruiting, where he covered both Florida and Georgia. He coached the three leading receivers at the time in USF history, Andre Davis (who is still first), Dontavia Bogan and Carlton Mitchell, all of whom eventually played in the NFL.
